To test your Red Sox All-Star Game knowledge, the 1999 Boston Red Sox Official Yearbook presents 'Starter Stumpers' — a salute to the 33 Red Sox players who actually started one or more 'Midsummer Classics'.

The first Starter Stumper is relatively easy 🧐.
[Hint: Though not playing on the field these days, he still is wearing a Red Sox uniform.] Turn the page for the answer as well as more Starter Stumpers.

Starter Stumper Answer: Jim Rice — who homered along with ex-Sox Fred Lynn at Comiskey Park in Chicago. Currently in his fifth year as the Red Sox hitting coach, the left fielder was selected to eight All-Star Games during his 16-year Red Sox-only career, starting games in 1978, '79, '83 and '85.

Jim Rice

1977, 1978, 1979,
1980, 1983, 1984,
1985, 1986

Below are four more 'easy' Starter Stumpers.
[Hint: Each is a gimme if you happen to know the four players who have had their uniform numbers retired by the Red Sox.]
For the answers to these four Stumpers, turn the facing right-hand page.

Twenty-eight additional Starter Stumpers follow throughout this Yearbook. Most are found on Red Sox player pages with answers on each player's corresponding career statistics page.

T=WB 56 N=NESN Cable Network F=FOX E=ESPN Times stated are Boston times and subject to change. Home games in red.
* Game time will be 1:15 or 4:05.

In 1999 the Boston Red Sox will host the third-ever All-Star Game to be played at Fenway Park.

The first game held at Fenway was on July 9, 1946 when the AL defeated the NL 12-0. Ted Williams of the Red Sox hit two homers, two singles and walked in his five at-bats — scoring four runs and driving in five. Seven other Sox were All-Star selections that year: Johnny Pesky, Dom Dimaggio, Bobby Doerr, Rudy York, Hal Wagner, Dave Ferriss and Mickey Harris.

Fenway Park was also the site of 1961's second All-Star Game (two games were played annually from 1959-62). That game featured solid pitching by both sides and ended in a 1-1 tie that was called after nine innings and a 30-minute rain delay. Sox player representatives that year were Don Schwall and Mike Fornieles.

Starter Stumpers from the inside cover, left to right, are answered below, top to bottom.

SS Joe Cronin — who, as the Red Sox player/manager, started the game for the fifth time in 1941, the year after he served as AL Team manager in the game.

SS Ted Williams — who connected in dramatic fashion at Briggs Stadium in Detroit in his second of 12 career All-Star starts; his last start was in 1959.

SS Bobby Doerr — who went deep in the second inning at Shibe Park in Philadelphia to erase a 1-0 NL lead in his second of five career All-Star Game starts.

SS Carl Yastrzemski — who played center field as well as first base, going 4-for-6 at Riverfront Stadium in Cincinnati in his fourth of eight All-Star Game starts.

Mo Vaughn — who started at Veterans Stadium
in Philadelphia replacing White Sox first baseman
Frank Thomas.

Nothing beats dining alfresco.
Especially if your food, your wine and your seat are all the RIGHT temperature.

An outstanding meal is mostly a matter of controlling ingredients and temperatures. Not easy outdoors — unless you have the tools you need for the task. Start with Viking Outdoor Cooking Equipment (if you don't have an indoor Viking kitchen, this is your opportunity to correct the situation). These grills come in a variety of sizes and colors with Gourmet-Glo™ Infra-red burners and a heavy-duty rotisserie. Viking grills feature the precise, "big fire" cooking power that forged the Viking Legend. The Viking Outdoor Refrigerator sets the professional standards for chill, with separate zones for wine, other beverages and delicate raw ingredients.

Wrapping a warm blanket around this Viking Outdoor Cooking and Refrigeration Package is our stainless steel Patio Heater. It's infra-red technology casts a 20 foot "Comfort Circle" around your family and guests and will help preserve the glow of a great meal and good company well into the evening.

Red Sox Affirmative Action Policy

The Red Sox will not discriminate against any employee or applicant because of race, religion, color, sex, age, national origin, or ancestry. The Red Sox will take affirmative action to insure that such individuals are treated during their employment without regard to race, religion, color, sex, age, national origin, or ancestry. Such action shall include but not be limited to the following: hiring, upgrading, demotion, transfer, recruitment, layoff, rates of pay, all other forms of compensation, and selection for training.

- Personnel procedures and practices with regard to training, promotion, transfer, compensation, demotion, layoff, or termination are to be administered with due regard to job performance, experience and qualifications, but without discrimination because of race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, or ancestry.
- It is the policy of the Red Sox that, in the process of recruitment for and appointment to the work force, qualified minority group candidates will be encouraged to apply.
- The Red Sox will not discriminate against any rehabilitated employee or applicant because of previous psychiatric treatment and/or confinement in a mental health facility. Employment will not be denied for such medical history unless there is a bona fide occupational qualification which precludes employment.
- Additionally, the Red Sox will not discriminate against any rehabilitated employee or applicant for employment because of physical handicap unless there is a bona fide occupational qualification which precludes employment.
- The Red Sox will not discriminate against qualified minority-owned vendors and suppliers, including suppliers of both professional and non-professional services. The Red Sox will request that its vendors and suppliers submit assurance of their commitments to the goal of equal employment opportunity. The Red Sox will not discriminate in the leasing of commercial space.
- Any Red Sox employee judged to be in willful and deliberate non-compliance with this equal opportunity policy will be subject to disciplinary action.
